Dedication & Celebration for New Fulwood Stage Tonight from 6-10PM

TIFTON, Ga. – Tonight, join in on the celebration and dedication of the new stage in Fulwood Park with a night of music, local food, dancing and more.

Hosted by Think Tifton and the City of Tifton, this free community concert is open to all and promises a night to remember.

The celebratory event will take place from 6PM-10PM on Friday, November 7th. The lineup includes the Page Brothers Band at 6PM, the dedication and ribbon-cutting of the stage at 7PM, and the Velcro Pygmies following and rocking the night away.

Food trucks, including Milo's Provisions, Sweet T's Food Truck, Rico's Tacos, and Silver Fox Coffee Co, will be onsite.

Savor the Flavor will be onsite as the alcohol vendor. Outside coolers will not be allowed and alcohol will only be served in the Think Tifton cups.

Guests are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs to enjoy the FREE concert under the stars and pines of Fulwood Park.

Parking will be available on the North Side of the park and on surrounding streets around the park. The driveway leading up to the stage will be closed all day Friday to ensure the safety of pedestrians going to and from the playground and restrooms.

We are ready to rock the night away as we celebrate this new community stage. See you there!
